MEDICINAL.

PUT UP
In glass vials, homoeopathically sealed, and always fresh—is the way Dr. Paro's Pleasant Pellets come. When you take a pill it's an important point to have them small—provided they have equal strength and efficacy. You'll find what you want in these little liver pills of Dr. Paro's. They're put up in a better way than the huge old-fashioned pills. What you want when you're "all out of sorts"—grumpy, thick-headed and take a gloomy view of life, is these little pills to clear up your system and start your liver into healthy action. Sick Headache, Biliary Headache, Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, and all derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels, are prevented, relieved, and cured. They're the cheapest pill you can buy, for they give you the most satisfaction, or your money is returned. You pay only for the good you get.

It would be Robbery Now. Mr. Charles F. Grogan, of the Southern Society, was a lieutenant in Mosby's command during the war. It only requires a reference to the old guerrilla chief or to the famous raids in Loudoun county to remind Mr. Grogan of a story, and the story is always worth listening to. A few nights ago Mr. Grogan was asked by one of his friends:

"Did Mosby ever take any of the plunder that was captured in those raids?" "No," he replied promptly, "he never took a cent of it. I remember on one occasion when he made a raid on a railroad train and captured $150,000. The money was divided among the men, share and share alike, but Mosby did not take a cent of it. Perhaps you never heard the story."

Of course no one had ever heard it in detail before, and Mr. Grogan, after reflecting to recall the incident, told it as follows: "The raid is known throughout the South as the 'greenback raid.' It was near Duffield station on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, between Baltimore and Martinsburg. There were about 65 of us, with Mosby himself in command. We took it into our heads to ditch a train, thinking that we'd find one full of Yankees going to the front. We hadn't the slightest idea what kind of luck we were going to have or what we would encounter.

"We selected a spot where the railroad ran between two steep banks. There were two tracks there, and we tore up one of them. I forget which. Presently a train came along on the other track and passed us. To take no more chances, we at once tore up the other track. Then we hid ourselves at the top of the embankment and waited. "Presently a train came along—I think it was moving westward—and we all got up and watched it. When it came to the spot where the rails were torn up the engine quietly turned over on her side and fell against the embankment. The whole thing was over in a few seconds, without a bit of noise or fuss. Nobody was hurt except the fireman, who was killed, I believe. The cars all remained standing.

"Our men at once went through the cars and ordered everybody out. There were a great many immigrants on the train, and we had a hard time explaining to them that we wanted them to get out of the cars. We noticed two men who seemed to be rather anxious about their baggage. One had a tin box and the other a carpet bag. We relieved the gentlemen of their burdens, and to our great surprise we found the bag and box full of greenbacks and treasury notes. It turned out that the two men were paymasters going to the front with money for the army.

"When we got this money, Mosby put it in my charge and told me to get across the river with it as fast as I could. Two men and myself immediately set out for Loudoun county with the money, and rode hard all night. I remember distinctly that one of the horses slipped and the rider was thrown to the ground, scattering the greenbacks he carried right and left. I remember, too, that the other man and myself laughed while he picked up the money, and teased him.

"The next morning Mosby and the others came up with us and we all stopped under a tree and divided the money. The money, I believe, amounted to about $150,000. We weren't very enthusiastic about it, because we didn't know whether it was good for anything or not. The treasury notes were fresh from the press and some of them bore coupons. The men called it money being divided equally among the men, but he did not take a cent.

"I do not remember how many prisoners we took. One of our men, J. Monroe Huskell, gave $50 of his money to a major whom he had captured. Some over-zealous guerrilla had relieved the major of his overcoat, his pocket-book and his small change."—N. Y. Sun.

What Will Do It?
Medical writers claim that the successful remedy for nasal catarrh must be one that will reach the remote sores and ulcerated surfaces. The history of the efforts to treat catarrh is proof positive that only one remedy has completely met these conditions, and that is Ely's Cream Balm. This safe and pleasant remedy has mastered catarrh as nothing else has ever done, and both physicians and patients freely concede this fact. Our druggists keep it.

ESCAPED!
"There was a numb, creepy feeling in my hands and legs. I had to rub and beat them until they were sore to partially overcome their numbness. Had a strange weakness in my back and stomach. Physicicians said it was creeping paralysis, for which there was no relief. I doctored a year and a half without benefit. Then I used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, and was cured. Gained 10 pounds."—James Kane, La Rue, O. Nervine is sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent by Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind. $1 a bottle, 6 for $5.
